Women & Men: He-ga he-ga ya-hi-ye he-ga.

Steady as the beating drum singing to the cedar flute, seasons go and seasons come,
bring the corn and bear the fruit.

Women & Men: By the waters sweet and clean,

where the mighty sturgeon lives, plant the squash and reap the bean, all the earth our mother gives.

O Great Spirit, hear our song, help us keep the ancient ways, keep the sacred fire strong, walk in balance all our days.

Seasons go and seasons come steady as the beating drum. Plum to seed to bud to plum.

He-ga  he-ga  ya-hi-ye  he-ga. Steady as the beating drum.

knowing

what's around the river-bend,

waiting just around the river-bend.

I look once more

just around the river-bend beyond the shore, where the gulls fly free. Don't know what for, what I dream the day might send - just a-round the riv-er-bend for me, com-ing for me.

I feel it there be-yond those trees or right be-hind these wa-ter-falls.
Can I ignore the sound of distant drumming for a handsome sturdy husband who builds handsome sturdy walls and never dreams that something might be coming just around the river-bend?

Just around the river-bend... I look once more just around the river bend beyond the shore, somewhere past the sea. Don’t know what for... why do all my dreams extend just around the river bend?

just around the river bend.
Should I marry Columbia? Is all my dreaming at an end?

Or

did you still wait for me, Dream Giver,

just around the river bend?

people are the people who look and think like you, but if you walk the footsteps of a stranger you'll learn things you never knew you never knew.

Have you ever heard the wolf cry to the blue corn moon, or asked the grin-ning bob-cat why he grinned? Can you sing with all the voices of the mountain? Can you paint with all the colors of the wind? Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?

other in a circle, in a hoop that never ends.

How high does the sycamore grow? If you cut it down, then you'll never know.

And you'll never hear the wolf cry to the blue corn moon, for whether we are white or copper-skinned, we need to sing with all the voices of the mountain, need to paint with all the colors of the wind.

If I Never Knew You
(Love Theme From POCAHONTAS)

Music by ALAN MENKEN
Lyrics by STEPHEN SCHWARTZ

Moderately slow

With pedal

Male: If I nev-er knew you,
If I never felt this love, I would have no inkling of how precious life can be.

And if I never held you, I would never have a clue how, at last, I'd find in you the missing part of me. In this world so full of fear, full of rage and lies,
I can see the truth so clear in your eyes, so dry your eyes. And I'm so grateful to you.

I'd have lived my whole life through, lost forever

if I never knew you.

Female: If I never knew you,

I'd be safe but half as real, never knowing I could feel a love so strong and true.

I'm so grateful to you. I'd have lived my whole life through, lost forever if I never knew

Male: I thought our love would be so beautiful.
Female:

Some-how we'd make the whole world bright.

Both: I never knew that fear and hate could be so strong, all they'd leave us were these whispers in the night, but still my heart is saying we were right.

Female: Oh.
